

Andhra Corporation Officials visit to Pammal for an Exposure Visit

A group of delegation from the Andhra Municipal Administration and Corporation had an orientation programme on “NAMMA Toilet” organized by the Commissionarate of Chennai Municipal Administration at Radisson Hotel, Chennai on 19th July 2014.

The Commissioner of the Chennai Municipal Administration, Mr. Chandrakant Kamble and Mr. Murugesan, Exective Engineer gave the orientation and details of the initiatives of the Namma Toilet scheme and the Amma Unavagam Scheme in Tamilnadu to the delegation. As part of the orientation programme, the delegation visited the Pammal Solid Waste Management Programmes and activities.

The delegation was headed by Smt. Anita Ramachandran, IAS, the Mission Director and it was coordinated by Sri.D. Vizai Bhaskar, Additional Mission Director. The delegation consisting of 35 members were represented by Commissioners, Executive Engineers, Deputy Executive Engineers, ATOs, Superintending Engineers, Sanitary Inspectors, Technical Experts. The Mayor of Eluru Corporation, Smt. Nurzahan, also visited the Pammal solid Waste Management programme and resource recovery programmes such as vermicomposting, recyclables recovery, swatch-1 machine and briquetting techniques.

Ms. Mangalam Balasubramanian, gave the briefing about the programme and explained each activity to the delegations. The Pammal Municipal Council members and office bearers were also present.

